

Thomas J. Miller

Thomas J. Miller passed away on January 29 after a battle with cancer. Tom is preceded in death by his parents John and Mary Lou. He is survived by his wife Sandy; his children: Amy, Dan (Jessica), Katie, and Thomas (Chyennea); his sister Mary Ann, his brother/cousin Frank "Butch," and his three grandchildren: Nora, Wesley, and Parker. He spent his working years in law enforcement, banks and finally retired after working at a local grocery store. Rumor has it he may have even been in a marching band.

Always quick with a joke, he made us laugh till the very end.

In lieu of flowers, place a Keno bet in Tom's honor and donate any winnings to American Cancer Society.

Posted online on February 01, 2022

Published in The Arizona Republic